AFTERCARE INSTRUCTIONS FOR MICRONEEDLING:

Immediately after treatment you will have redness in the treated area, and it will feel much like a sunburn. You might also feel like the skin is “tight”. The redness will resolve in twenty four to forty eight hours. Please use the lubricant provided whenever you feel dry during the first 24 hours.

You might have some mild discomfort that will resolve over the next two hours. Avoid using anything topical other than what is provided, on the treated area for twenty four to thirty six hours.

Avoid heavy exercise, swimming and sweating for twenty four to thirty six hours. NO make up for twenty four hours.

Use a gentle cleanser and pressure while washing treated area. If you had PRP treatment as well use only warm water for the first twenty four hours.

After twenty four (36 even better) hours you can moisturize and use sun block as needed.

If you are going to be outside after twenty four hours use sunblock. If the area treated is your face also wear a wide brimmed hat.
